NOTICE IN THEATRICAL AND CIRCUS MANA-
GERS.—Madame MAINE MAGUARY, the most renowned actress in America, has just arrived from Europe, and is specifically informed that she is now at liberty to arrange for other leading theatrical engagements in America. She has been engaged for the present by Mr. D. W. Dick, Turpin, in Turpin's Ride to York, and Death of Black Bear, being the most successful play ever produced in the ring. She is also engaged for the present by Mr. C. C. Collier, for Celeste's line of characters—speaking or pantomime, and her price in which her horsemanship is perfect—so great that she can afford to charge Victoria. Address Madame Magur, 47 Bond street.
